i-Function

(347) 880-6533

www.i-function.com

To help people gain confidence and live more productive lives by providing innovative & effective tools that facilitate early and accurate diagnosis of cognitive problems potentially related to Alzheimer’s Disease (LASSI™) and assess and improve everyday functional skills (FUNSAT™).

Solutions: LASSI™

- Current commonly used neuropsychological cognitive tests do not capture the earliest stages of Mild Cognitive Impairment (MCI) before multi-system brain degeneration has occurred.
- LASSI-L™ is highly sensitive to the risk for transition to dementia from aMCI and separates aMCI from cognitively stable individuals.
- LASSI™ assessments are available in two formats: As a paper & pencil (LASSI-L™) and as a self-administered cloud-based software (under the supervision of a healthcare professional) – the LASSI-D™ in both English and Spanish.
- LASSI-L™ is well documented with research supported by the NIH and published in several high impact journals.
- Solutions: FUNSAT™
- Cognitive impairments and the need for help with financial and at home medication management activities make seniors vulnerable to financial abuse and more likely to suffer consequences of medication non-adherence.
- FUNSAT™ is a cloud-based evidence-driven, functional skills assessment and training software.
- FUNSAT™ delivers improvements in functional skills of 40-60% after an avg. of 5-10 training sessions for older adults 60+ with or without mild cognitive impairment & older adults with mental illnesses.
- FUNSAT™ generates 90+% confidence in “Real World” use by graduating training program users.
- FUNSAT™ is well documented with research supported by the NIH and published in several high impact journals.

Discover the Tovertafel - the world's only serious game system for people living with dementia

The Tovertafel is an award-winning dementia care innovation that has become an indispensable tool in more than 6000 care communities worldwide. Developed in the Netherlands by the company Tover, the Tovertafel (Dutch for "Magic Table") is the first serious games system of its kind. Care community residents, staff, and relatives alike are able to experience its benefits first-hand.

Playing for a better existence

The Tovertafel's unique games are supported by scientific research to have a positive impact on the quality of life of seniors living with dementia. Through interactive light projections, the games stimulate physical activity, social interaction and cognition.

Everyday support and care

The Tovertafel can support care professionals in providing the highest quality of care on a daily basis. It can be integrated seamlessly into daily routines and broadens the range of easy yet effective activities that staff or volunteers can offer their residents.

Challenging situations, such as restlessness, or taking medication, are made more manageable by playing with the Tovertafel. By facilitating social interaction and reducing restless and tense behavior, the Tovertafel helps strengthen carer-resident relationships and lightens workloads. The Tovertafel makes person-centered care that much more achievable and enjoyable.

Commitment to wellbeing

The Tovertafel improves a care community's offering, demonstrating the community's dedication to resident wellbeing and its commitment to innovation. In that way, families get to know that care facilities genuinely care about promoting happiness and engagement in caregiving.
